Group's online revenue soared 158% to £30.6m from £11.9m, while active online customer base increased 87% to 370,00.

Quiz said its underlying international sales increased 32% to £21.2m from £16m. Revenue from UK stores and concessions increased 12% to £64.6m from £57.5m a year ago.

The fast fashion brand said it has proposed maiden dividend of 0.8p per share in respect of the second half of financial year 2018.

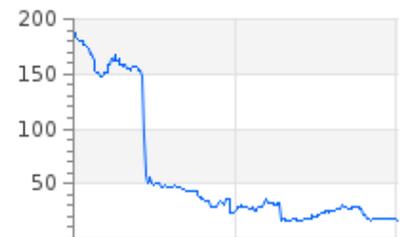

Quiz added that successful placing on AIM in July 2017 raised £10.3m of new money for the business to help fund further expansion.

Tarak Ramzan, founder and chief executive of the company, said: "With our attractive customer offer, well-invested infrastructure and omni-channel business model with the flexibility to increase investment in higher return areas, QUIZ is well positioned to deliver strong growth in the year ahead in-line with the Board's expectations."
