Lighthouse Group trading ahead of comparative in first six months of 2018

Lighthouse Group PLC (LON:LGT) said it is trading ahead of its 2017 comparative in the first six months of 2018.

In a trading update ahead of its half-year results, the AIM-listed financial advisory service said it had continued to trade positively in the first half of the year, in line with expectations and ahead of the comparator period in 2017.

The firm also said it had cash balances at 30 June 2018 of £9.6m, up from £8.1m in the same period last year. The company added that it was pleased with trading to date in 2018 and was confident of further progress over the remainder of the year. Lighthouse will release its half-year results on 4 September 2018.
