Capita to handle Westminster's council tax collections for another seven years

Capita PLC's (LON:CPI) contract to handle Westminster Council's revenues and benefits service has been renewed for a further seven years.

The outsourcer will continue to manage council tax, rates, and housing benefits for the council using its automated digital platform.

The renewal comes with an option to extend for an additional three years and is worth £65m in total.

Capita and Westminster City Council have worked together for 24 years.
