Mirada says close to signing contract with leading communications service provider in Mongolia

Mirada PLC (LON:MIRA) has revealed that it is close to signing a contract with Skytel LLC, a leading communications service provider in Mongolia, in an email of its draft interim results released in error to a number of third parties.

The AIM-listed provider of integrated software solutions for Digital TV operators and broadcasters, disclosed the contract news in a statement explaining why trading in its shares on AIM had been temporarily suspended from 8:40am on Tuesday.

The company pointed out that it was due to announce its unaudited interim results for the six months ended 30 September 2018 during the week commencing 17 December 2018.

However, it added, it has come the group's attention that a draft of the interim results statement was distributed by email in error to a number of third parties on the morning of 6 December 2018.

The firm said distribution of this draft interim results statement was not authorised by the company and was an inadvertent error by its PR adviser.

Mirada noted that the draft interim results statement made reference to a contract win with Skytel, for which the firm expects to receive a signed copy imminently, with an announcement to be made at that time providing further details.

It added that trading in its shares will remain suspended on AIM pending announcement of the Skytel contract and then the company's interim results.
