RIU Explorers Conference next week has packed program of presenters

RIU Explorers Conference 2019 in Fremantle, WA, next week has drawn an impressive line-up of speakers ranging from many leading junior and mid-cap mining companies to various industry experts.

Mining company representatives will outline their projects to conference attendees while industry experts will outline trends and factors influencing the mining sector.

The 18th version of the annual event, with the theme of Making Mines - Making Money, opens on Tuesday afternoon, February 19, and continues until Thursday, February 21.

Records already set

Organised by Vertical Events, it will be held at Esplanade Hotel Fremantle - by Rydges and has attracted record presenters, exhibitors and early registrations.

Vertical Events managing director Stewart McDonald said: "For many years the two-day RIU Explorers Conference program had roughly 30 presenting companies and near-on 400 delegates.

"Leading into our 2019 RIU Explorers Conference, the event now goes into a third day and we have over 60 presenting companies and well over 1,000 delegates."
