Last week, MMJ revealed a share buy-back and updated the market on its dividend policy.

The company plans to buy-back up to 10 million shares on-market over the next 12 months as part of its active approach to capital management.

Given the discount the shares are trading to NTA, the board have determined that an on-market buyback of MMJ shares is a meaningful value accretive use of its funds.

Regarding the dividend policy, MMJ intends to distribute 20% of its annual profit after tax excluding unrealised gains and losses on investments from FY20 onwards.

The dividend would be payable within three months of each half year after the completion of the half year and annual financial statements.

It is MMJ's intention that the dividend would benefit from available franking credits held by the company.
