H&T Group reports solid 2018 with good growth from its key businesses

John Nichols, chief executive of H&T GROUP PLC (LON:HAT), tells Proactive London's Andrew Scott the pawnbroker enjoyed a solid 2018, with all of its core businesses delivering growth in the year.

The company's been investing in its digital presence of late as more customers shift to online, and it benefited from this move in 2018.

One of the big winners was the foreign exchange business, which saw income jump 22% last year, driven by the popularity of the newly-introduced click-and-collect service.
