Red Rock Resources delighted as work towards JORC resource at Musonoi mine advances

Red Rock Resources PLC's Andrew Bell (LON:RRR) tells Proactive London they've completed the first phase of work at their Musonoi mine in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

He says they've digitised data from 83 old drill holes, 9 cross sections and an open pit shell at the site.

Bell says they've also also recreated a remodelled historic orebody at 2.5% and 1% copper cut-offs and are seeking old core to resample.
