Tavistock Investments 'demonstrating rapid growth' as it announces maiden dividend

Tavistock Investments PLC (LON:TAVI) CEO Brian Raven tells Proactive London's Andrew Scott the year to March 2019 was a very successful period for them in terms of continued growth.

"EBITDA's doubled which is part of the story we've been explaining for the past several years - as funds under management increase so too does the profitability of the business".

The investment manager reported earnings of £1.48mIn as well as unveiled plans to pay out a maiden interim dividend.

"We built a business that was designed for rapid growth and are pleased to report we're now demonstrating that"
