Mining Strategist Christopher Ecclestone on Ceylon Graphite

Why Sri Lanka's graphite is unique and how fast demand is growing, particularly in the Asian EV sector. Here, analyst Christopher Ecclestone tells us about the company's charismatic yet business-focussed owner and what the production strategy looks like over the next few quarters. Ceylon Graphite Corp, is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange, an explorer for graphite engaged in the development of graphite mines in Sri Lanka. The company holds exploration rights over a land package of around 121km². These rights cover areas of historic graphite production from the early twentieth century and represent a majority of the known graphite occurrences in Sri Lanka.
