Milestone Group to target Poplar with latest collaboration

Media and technology firm Milestone Group (LON:MSG) is set to provide training to young people in one of London's most deprived boroughs.

It has struck an agreement with the Poplar Housing and Regeneration Community Association (Poplar HARCA) to provide a pilot of the Spirituality for Kids (SFK) resilience and emotional intelligence training.

HARCA owns and manages around 9,000 homes in east London and its aim is "to make Poplar a place where people choose to live, work and enjoy life".

Chief executive Deborah White said: "We are excited by the start of what we see will be an ongoing relationship with Poplar HARCA.

"The work they deliver in the community is essential to improve the lives of so many in the local area in one of London's most deprived boroughs."

She added this was the early stage of a pilot that was anticipated to see integrated more fully into the Passion project - Milestone's flagship social engagement programme.
