Full interview: Millennials seeking more socially responsible investments says Impax Asset Management President

John Keefe, President and CEO of Pax World Funds and President of its investment adviser, Impax Asset Management Group PLC (LON:IPX) tells Proactive Investors that millennials want their money invested in more ESG (environmental social governance) focused firms.

Keefe says this fundamental shift in the market is pushing investors to be "agents of change" which he predicts to be a long-term secular trend, and something that's not a fad.
