IronRidge Resources to present its Ghana lithium assets to other car groups after VW visit

IronRidge Resources Limited (LON:IRR) has held a meeting with Volkswagen to present its lithium project in Ghana to the German car company.

The meeting was solely part of the IronRidge's general marketing and promotional activities, said the statement.

Volkswagen has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the government in Ghana for the manufacture and assembly of vehicles.

"It is on this basis and Volkswagen's broader electric vehicle and battery manufacturing aspirations, that IronRidge sees synergies between the two companies."

Similar presentations are planned to other large vehicle manufacturers, added the mining junior.
