Proactive's Friday markets snapshot

News here on cinema owner Cineworld who remain upbeat about customers still going out to watch movies despite fears about gatherings in public places because of the coronavirus.

The Virgin Media data breach is affecting the markets although no financial details were allegedly compromised, according to the company.

Amigo is in the headlines again and niche bank PCF are reporting a much stronger loan book.

Open Orphan subsidiary hVIVO features here too with news of a new contract which could deliver millions in future revenue streams.
